THE LIST THAT CHANGED MY LIFE Olivia Beirne

When Georgia's sister is diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis, she promises to do everything her older sibling can no longer do, resulting in a journey that will change her life forever – for fans of Sophie Kinsella and Marian Keyes.

Sometimes all you need is a little push . . .

Perfect for fans of Sophie Kinsella, Katie Marsh and Marian Keyes, Olivia Beirne's The List That Changed My Life takes its readers on an hilarious and heart-warming journey of a lifetime, showing us what it means to really be alive.

Georgia loves wine, reality TV and sitting on the sofa after work. She does not love heights, looking at her bank account, going on dates, or activities that involve a sports bra. And she will never, ever take a risk.

That is, until her braver, bolder, big sister finds out that she won't be able to tick off the things she wanted to do before turning thirty, and turns to Georgia to help her finish her list.

With the birthday just months away, Georgia suddenly has a deadline to learn to grab life with both hands. Could she be brave enough to take the leap, for her sister?

And how might her own life change if she did?

About the Author:

Olivia Beirne is a 26 year old writer, who previously worked in casting. She lives in Tulse Hill, London with her friends and their resident mouse and grew up in Buckinghamshire. This novel is a standalone debut and she is currently working on her second novel.

THIRTY Christina Bradley

30 dates. 30 days. Over 3,000 miles. In her hilariously insightful debut novel, Christina Bradley asks: how far would you go to find the one?

Fresh, funny and witty, Thirty shines an honest, often awkward, often hilarious, but ultimately wonderfully fresh light on what it truly means to be single, when everyone else (according to their social media accounts) seemingly has it all. Perfect for fans of Sophie Kinsella, Holly Bourne, Lucy Vine and Hannah Doyle.

Thirty days till she turns thirty . . . Just thirty dates to find The One . . .

Bella Edwards is a hot mess. Days away from turning thirty, single, struggling to reconcile where she is with where she imagined she'd be by this point in her life, she has come to believe her entire future happiness is based on meeting 'The One'. After an unfortunate meeting with a fortune teller, where it seems Bella's single fate is sealed, she sets off on a journey from London to New York, and then on a road trip across America to San Francisco, all with one clear objective – to find The One and prove the fortune teller wrong. What ensues is a raucous adventure of dating, love – and self-discovery.

About the Author:

Christina Bradley is a writer, storyteller, former actress, communication coach and Founder of the Communication Campus. She has never met a Gypsy named Mary-Rose, had her fortune read, or sworn at her boss. She has dated a cowboy, chewed tobacco and visited Buffalo Bill's gravesite. She avidly believes in 'The One'. Christina lives in Barcelona and is currently working on her next book. Thirty is her debut novel.

LONDON AFFAIR

Rhyannon Byrd

Passion. Deception. Intrigue. The sexy serial, London Affair, one addictive novel.

An intriguing proposition...

American art-history graduate Emmy Reed is in London, hoping to land her dream job by getting an exclusive scoop on a famous reclusive artist. When fate throws her into the path of millionaire playboy Jase Beckett, Emmy is determined to turn down his proposal to be his date for a family wedding. That is, until she discovers that her sought-after artist is his grandfather.

A web of passion and deception...

Tired of the game-playing women in his circle, Jase finds Emmy refreshingly fascinating. And as the weekend progresses and they work together to survive his insufferable family's devious scheming, Emmy and Jase find themselves drowning in an intoxicating sexual chemistry that leaves them both desperate for more...and reeling emotionally.

An explosive love story.

When their stunning weekend is over, neither is ready to let go. But dark secrets surround the Beckett family - can their fledgling relationship survive the damaging and dangerous revelations to come?

About the Author:

Rhyannon Byrd is an avid, long-time fan of romance and the author of more than twenty erotic and paranormal titles. She has been nominated for three Romantic Times Reviewers' Choice Awards, including best Shape-shifter Romance, and her books have been translated into nine languages. JUST MY TYPE

Hannah Doyle

The second laugh-out-loud rom-com from Hannah Doyle. You'll laugh, you'll cry and laugh all over again with this brilliant story that follows Jasmine, who ALWAYS falls for the wrong guy . . .

He's my type on paper . . . but IRL?

Meet Jasmine.

- The quirky/cool photographer to a superstar blogger
- She's going on a date with a SUPER hot guy on the London Eye tonight
- Best friend Mila is her wife for life
- This millennial is #LivingHerBestLife

But fast-forward a few hours, and the reality isn't quite so picture perfect. Jasmine hates her stuck-up blogger boss. She can barely afford rent in her stupid London flat. Her best friend seems to have all her sh*t together. Oh, and that date she was so excited about? She got dumped. On the London Eye. In the middle of a thunderstorm. With a bunch of tourists watching . . .

Best friend Mila decides that Jasmine needs a new 'type on paper', because Jasmine's current criteria is so off that her dating history is one long line-up of fools. So Mila challenges Jasmine to look once, if not twice, at the guys who wouldn't normally fit her 'type'. With nothing to lose, Jasmine accepts. Maybe, just maybe, she'll surprise herself.

About the Author:

Hannah Doyle started out at a press agency in Bristol before skipping off to London to be a celebrity journalist. During the five years she spent at Reveal magazine Hannah became the go-to girl for interviewing male stars during scantily clad photo shoots. THE GIRL IN THE LETTER

Emily Gunnis

READ HER LETTER. REMEMBER HER STORY.

The Girl in the Letter is the hot debut for 2018, a page-turning, nail-biting and heartwrenching novel that combines mystery and suspense with a strong emotional core.

A heartbreaking letter. A girl locked away. A mystery to be solved.

1956. When Ivy Jenkins falls pregnant she is sent in disgrace to St Margaret's, a dark, brooding house for unmarried mothers. Her baby is adopted against her will. Ivy will never leave.

Present day. Samantha Harper is a journalist desperate for a break. When she stumbles on a letter from the past, the contents shock and move her. The letter is from a young mother, begging to be rescued from St Margaret's. Before it is too late. Sam is pulled into the tragic story and discovers a spate of unexplained deaths surrounding the woman and her child. With St Margaret's set for demolition, Sam has only hours to piece together a sixty-year-old mystery before the truth, which lies disturbingly close to home, is lost for ever. . .

Read her letter. Remember her story. . .

About the Author:

Emily Gunnis previously worked in TV drama and lives in Brighton with her young family. She is one of the four daughters of Sunday Times bestselling author Penny Vincenzi.

THE OCEANS BETWEEN US

Gill Thompson

A heartwrenching, uplifting story, inspired by real events, of a mother and child, separated by continents, trying to find a way back to each other.

Inspired by heartrending real events, a mother fights to find her son and a child battles for survival in this riveting debut novel.

For readers of Before We Were Yours by Lisa Wingate, Lilac Girls by Martha Hall Kelly, The Letter by Kathryn Hughes, and Remember Me by Lesley Pearce.

A woman is found wandering injured in London after an air raid.

She remembers nothing of who she is. Only that she has lost something very precious.

As the little boy waits in the orphanage, he hopes his mother will return.

But then he finds himself on board a ship bound for Australia, the promise of a golden life ahead, and wonders: how will she find him in a land across the oceans?

In Perth, a lonely wife takes in the orphaned child. But then she discovers the secret of his past. Should she keep quiet? Or tell the truth and risk losing the boy who has become her life?

This magnificent, moving novel, set in London and Australia, is testament to the strength of the human spirit and the enduring power of love.

About the Author:

Gill Thompson is an English lecturer who recently completed an MA in Creative Writing at Chichester University. The first three chapters of The Ocean's Between Us were longlisted for the Mslexia novel award.

HEATSTROKE

Hazel Barkworth

They meet at school. He is funny, wild and kind. She can't believe he wants her, when he could have anyone. Theirs is a love story that was never supposed to happen.

When fifteen-year-old Lily disappears at the beginning of a long, hot summer, the police come time and again to question Rachel and her daughter, Mia. As Lily's teacher, and her best friend, they surely must know something?

Then Lily is spotted at a ferry terminal. But she isn't alone. The grainy CCTV footage reveals a man waiting for her in the shadows. Her Maths teacher, Mr Webb.

But this isn't the forbidden love story you think you're reading. It's really about Rachel and Mark, two colleagues who were having a secret affair. Now Mark has run off with one of their students. And Rachel knows where they're heading.

What follows is an intense exploration of crossed boundaries, power and betrayal, and the dark lengths people will go to in the name of love.

About the Author:

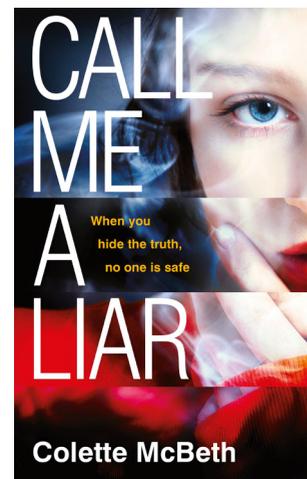

Hazel is a graduate of both the Oxford University MSt in Creative Writing and the Curtis Brown Creative Novel-Writing Course. She lives in London with her partner, and works as a cultural consultant and trends researcher for a branding agency. Heatstroke is her first novel.

CALL ME A LIAR

Colette McBeth

A new standalone psychological thriller from Colette McBeth, whose dark, twisty and hugely compelling novels are beloved of writers like Paula Hawkins, Clare Mackintosh, and Marian Keyes.

You could say it started with vanity. We believed we were special. But the truth is we were simply vulnerable.

One of them is lying.
One of them is guilty.
No one is safe.

Months after landing their dream job, five brilliant young minds are sent on a remote retreat. But when one of them disappears, they're forced to question why they were brought here in the first place, and how far they'd go to get what they want.

And for the first time in their lives, they realise too much knowledge can be deadly.

This is the chilling story of what happens when the idealism of youth turns toxic. Can it ever be justified to do bad things for the greater good?

Praise for Colette McBeth:

'Clever, atmospheric and truly scary. Colette is the real deal' Marian Keyes

'A rare thing: gripping but compassionate' Paula Hawkins

About the Author:

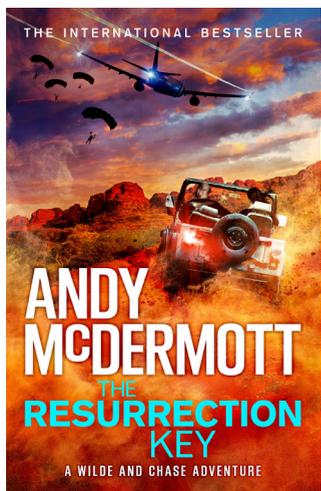

Colette McBeth is the critically acclaimed author of psychological thrillers Precious Thing, The Life I Left Behind and An Act of Silence. Colette was a BBC TV News television correspondent for ten years, during which time she covered many major crime stories and worked out of Westminster as a political reporter.

When historian Suzan Tan is asked to examine the contents of a derelict villa on the Bosphorus, she is intrigued to discover a Ouija board among the artefacts. Forty years ago, a young girl was found with a knife in her heart in this villa. It is said that before her death this very Ouija board spelled out her name. The verdict was suicide - but what if it was a brutal act of murder and her killer was still walking free?

Suzan asks Ikmen to solve the case, and despite his reluctance to get involved, he soon finds himself drawn into the mystery. With the help of his friend Inspector Süleyman, Ikmen delves into Istanbul's dark underbelly to uncover a terrifying tale of secrets, lies and murder.

About the Author:

Trained as an actress, Barbara Nadel used to work in mental health services. Born in the East End of London, she now writes full time and has been a visitor to Turkey for over twenty years. She received the Crime Writers' Association Silver Dagger for her novel Deadly Web, and the Swedish Flintax Prize for historical crime fiction for her first Francis Hancock novel, Last Rights.

DEATH'S DARK VALLEY Paul Doherty

1311. Murder and mayhem prowl the highways and coffin paths of Medieval England... The dramatic and gripping twentieth novel in the much-loved Hugh Corbett series by Paul Doherty. A dark, medieval mystery perfect for readers of C. J. Sansom, E. M. Powell and Bernard Cornwell.

It is four years since the death of King Edward I, but his reign of terror has cast long shadows over the kingdom.

At Holyrood Abbey, sheltered in the depths of the Welsh march, the old king's former bodyguards protect his secret relics and watch over a mysterious prisoner who is kept in the abbey's dungeon. But their peaceful existence is shattered when Abbot Henry is poisoned.

Summoned to Holyrood, Sir Hugh Corbett, Keeper of the Secret Seal, finds the fortress in chaos. Brothers Anselm and Richard have been brutally slain by nails driven deep into their skulls. No one knows who could be behind the gruesome killings and the news attracts the attention of two unwanted guests: the sinister Marcher Lord Mortimer and King Philip of France's devious envoy De Craon.

As more mysterious deaths occur, and a violent snow storm sweeps through the valley, Corbett must act quickly to identify the malevolent demon who has risen from hell to turn the abbey into a house of murder . . .

About the Author:

Paul Doherty was born in Middlesbrough. He studied History at Liverpool and Oxford Universities and obtained a doctorate for his thesis on Edward II and Queen Isabella. He is now headmaster of a school in north-east London and lives with his family in Essex.

THE NICE AND ACCURATE GOOD OMENS TV COMPANION

The ultimate TV companion book to Good Omens, a massive new television launch on Amazon Prime Video and the BBC for 2019, written and show-run by Neil Gaiman and adapted from the internationally beloved novel by Terry Pratchett and Neil Gaiman.

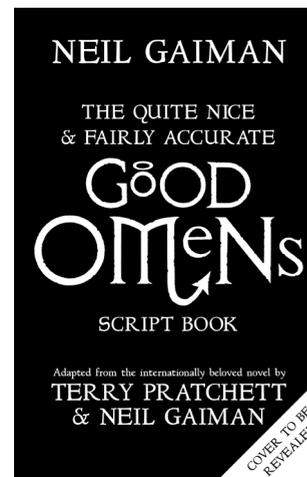

In the beginning there was a book written by Terry Pratchett and Neil Gaiman about the forces of good and evil coming together to prevent the apocalypse, scheduled to happen on a Saturday just after tea.

Now, that internationally beloved novel has been transformed into six hour-long episodes of some of the most creative and ambitious television ever made.

Keep calm, because The Nice and Accurate Good Omens TV Companion is your ultimate guide to navigating Armageddon. Through character profiles and in-depth interviews with the stars and the crew, stunning behind-the-scenes and stills photography of the cast and locations, and a fascinating insight into costume boards and set designs, you will discover the feats of creativity and mind-boggling techniques that have gone into bringing an angel, a demon, and the Antichrist to the screens of people everywhere. This book will take you inside the world of Heaven and Hell (and Tadfield) and is set to shatter coffee tables around the world.

About Neil Gaiman and Terry Pratchett

Terry Pratchett is a god in the world of fantasy writing, best known for his Discworld series. Among his many prizes and citations are the World Fantasy Life Achievement Award, the Carnegie Medal, the BSFA Award, eight honorary doctorates and a knighthood. His books have sold more than 85 million copies worldwide, and have been translated into 40 languages. In 2007, Terry Pratchett was diagnosed with early onset Alzheimer's Disease. He died in 2015.

THE QUITE NICE & FAIRLY ACCURATE GOOD OMENS SCRIPT BOOK

A glorious reinvention of the iconic bestseller Good Omens – the original scripts of Neil Gaiman's adaptation, containing much that is new and revelatory and even several scenes that are not actually in the final television series.

Includes an introduction by Neil Gaiman about bringing Good Omens to the screen

In 1990, dream literary collaborators Terry Pratchett and Neil Gaiman published 'the funniest book they could write' about the end of the world. Now, Neil Gaiman reinvents their groundbreaking classic for 2019 with his original shooting scripts from the show, and gives readers a unique insight into his adaptation and vision for translating this iconic novel to the screen in an introductory essay.

This all-new take on a tale about representatives of good and evil who join forces to prevent the coming apocalypse (which is scheduled to happen on a Saturday, just after tea) will be a joy for fans and new readers alike.

DO NOT FEED THE BEAR

Rachel Elliott

A life-affirming, warm and compelling novel of love and letting go. For readers of Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine, The Trouble with Goats and Sheep, and When God Was a Rabbit.

Sydney is a cartoonist and freerunner. She's never been able to stay still, always feels that life is teetering on the edge, and she's never come to terms with the event that ripped her family apart when she was ten years old. And so, on a birthday that she doesn't want to celebrate, she returns alone to St Ives to face up to her guilt and grief. This trip turns out to be more life-changing than expected – not only for herself, but for her family and some of the locals.

Maria, her husband Jon, and their daughter Belle live in an unhappy triangle in their house in the same seaside town. Belle works in a bookshop and thinks she's asexual, Jon thinks he's an artist and is horrible to his wife, and Maria is a dental hygienist who makes muffins. Not just any muffin, but different flavours, different spices, depending on who she needs to heal. And it's Maria who helps Sydney when she needs it the most. It's Maria, too, who invites Sydney's father, and her partner Ruth, into their home. And that's where life takes a different turn.

Do Not Feed the Bear is a book about people taking time to find themselves - a lifetime, in some cases, a chance meeting, in others. It's a book about healing, about who you trust and who you know, and a life-affirming book about love, and letting things go.

About the Author:

Rachel Elliott is the author of Whispers Through a Megaphone, long-listed for the Bailey's Women's Prize in 2016. She is also a practising psychotherapist, and lives in Bath.

THE SIX LOVES OF BILLY BINNS

Richard Lumsden

If you were looking back over a hundred years of your life, what would you change? A wonderfully quirky, honest and heartfelt debut novel for any reader of Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine or The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry.

The Six Loves of Billy Binns is a deeply moving and honest debut set in London against the backdrop of the changing 20th century.

At 117 years old, Billy Binns is the oldest man in Europe and he knows his time is almost up. But Billy has a final wish: he wants to remember what love feels like one last time. As he looks back at the relationships that have shaped his flawed life - and the events that shaped the century - he recalls a life full of hope, mistakes, heartbreak and, above all, love.

About the Author:

Richard Lumsden has worked as an actor, writer and composer in television, film and theatre for 30 years. As an actor his films include Downhill, Sightseers, Sense & Sensibility and The Darkest Hour, as well as numerous television shows and theatre productions. The Six Loves of Billy Binns is his first novel.

JAMES ACASTER'S PERFECT SOUND WHATEVER

James Acaster

A brand new memoir from Sunday Times bestselling author James Acaster

The hilarious new memoir from James Acaster: comedy legend, bestselling author, undercover cop, receiver of cabbages.

January, 2017.

James Acaster wakes hungover and alone in New York, his girlfriend having just left him. Thinking this is his rock bottom, little does James know that by the end of the year he will have shat himself in a Los Angeles steakhouse and disrespected a pensioner on television.

Luckily, there is one thing he can rely on for comfort - music. In true Acaster fashion, this ends up with a completely unnecessary mission: to buy as much music as he can released in 2016, the year before everything went wrong (for James, at least). Some albums are life-changing masterpieces, others are 'Howdilly Doodilly' by Okilly Dokilly, a metalcore album devoted to The Simpsons character Ned Flanders. But all of them play a part in the year that James gets his life back on track.

In Perfect Sound Whatever, James takes us through the music of 2016, the bullshit of 2017, and how the beauty of one defeated the ugliness of the other. He will also reveal how he stole a cookie from Clint Eastwood and attempted to complete his musical odyssey by reforming one of Kettering's most overlooked bands - the Wow! Scenario.

About the Author:

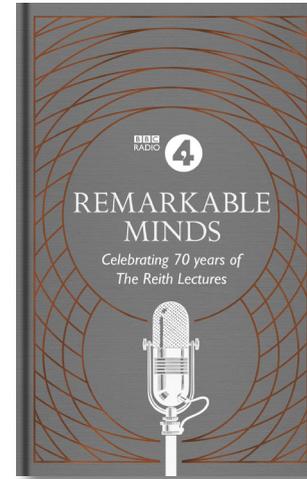

James Acaster began performing stand-up comedy in January 2008. He has been nominated for the Edinburgh Comedy Award five times. In 2018 he became the first comedian to release a four-part Netflix stand-up special, entitled Repertoire.

REMARKABLE MINDS: A CELEBRATION OF THE REITH LECTURES

BBC Radio 4

Learn something new in half-an-hour through iconic talks by the world's great thinkers

Delve into an extraordinary archive of talks with BBC Radio 4's Reith Lectures.

A time capsule into how much the world has changed over the last seven decades, they chart Britain's shifting values and place in the world, from the decline of the British Empire in the '50s, to the rise of teen culture in the '60s to joining the European project in the '70s. But they also show remarkable foresight, with talks about the age of the automaton and climate change that only now can be fully appreciated for their prescience.

Right up to the present day, the Reith Lectures have delighted audiences across the world, with recent lecturers including Hilary Mantel on how stories can bring the dead back to life, Grayson Perry on whether 'anything goes' when it comes to art, and Stephen Hawking on why black holes aren't black.

Gathering together the Reith transcripts together for the very first time, as a beautifully packaged hardback, this is a rich and remarkable collection.

YEAR OF BEING: Classical Music To Live Every Day of the Year Clemency Burton-Hill

Following on from her bestselling book Year of Wonder, award-winning musician, broadcaster and writer Clemency Burton-Hill brings her vast passion, enthusiasm and expertise to a whole new volume of daily classical delights. Beginning on January 1 and ending on December 31, Clemency delves into a thousand years of human history to present her readers (and listeners) with 366 diverse and life-enhancing works of music.

Year of Being builds on the idea that pieces of music can become universal social objects, made by humans for other humans, passed between us, gifts across space and time. And that whoever we are, wherever we come from and whatever we do, they can become a soundtrack to our everyday lives and for different states of 'being', whether guiding people through difficult times, or helping them to meditate and reflect. Burton-Hill shows, too, how music can offer refuge from our frenetic lives, allowing us to let go and just 'be'.

The stories behind the composers show the resilience of the human spirit; about how music is the legacy of human beings as it endures and lives on, and how music is silent until played by human beings. The history of classical music is a history of human being: we are part of that continuum and, in our ever more frenetic and fragmented lives, finding those spaces can be a singular gift. Find them here, in Clemency's Year of Being.

About the Author:

Clemency Burton-Hill is one of the UK's leading arts broadcasters and writers as well as Creative Director of Music and Arts for New York Public Radio. An award-winning violinist, Clemency has performed all over the world under leading conductors. She is the co-founder of Aurora Orchestra and a patron of the music and arts education charities The Choir of London Trust and Dramatic Need.

THE SCOTLAND YARD PUZZLE BOOK Sinclair McKay

Pit your wits against the brilliant minds of Scotland Yard with this terrific collection of crime scenes, conundrums and whodunnits.

The mist sits low and thick just below the London skyline... Big Ben looms in the distant darkness... A lone figure, overcoat pulled tightly around him, is walking with purpose, pipe in mouth, hat sitting low on his head. An amber light shines out from a lamppost. Mystery hangs heavy in the air...

There is no image as timeless and fascinating as that of the 19th Century Scotland Yard detective. Their purpose remains timeless: uncover the crime and bring the criminal to justice, simple. But their work involves some of the hardest problem-solving imaginable and requires the highest levels of mental agility. Can you solve the puzzles these feats of detection have inspired?

Since it opened its doors in 1829, Scotland Yard has used the science of detection to solve the most macabre of murders and catch the most audacious of jewel thieves. This book takes a look through the history of the famous institution, and recreates some of the most complex conundrums its detectives ever faced. Technology has shone light on the most difficult cases, but the analytical mind needed to fathom the clues and crack the cases remains as essential as ever. Do you have what it takes to be a Scotland Yard detective?

About the author:

Sinclair McKay is the author of the Number 1 bestselling Bletchley Park Brainteasers as well as the Sunday Times bestseller The Secret Life of Bletchley Park, amongst others. He writes for the Spectator and the Telegraph and spends most of his time eyebrow-deep in dusty archives. He lives in east London.

HEY! LISTEN! Steve McNeil

A history of the golden period of video games, from Pong to Playstation, written by comedian and Twitch streaming legend Steve McNeil

It is fair to say Steve McNeil likes video games. When he took his Nintendo Wii on honeymoon (obviously), he played it so much he damaged an eye and had to wear an eye patch. The locals nicknamed him 'the pale pirate'.

Steve's obsession with video games can be traced back to the golden period from the late 70s to the mid 90s. In this book he will delve into these games – from the appallingly bad to the breathtakingly good. He will also take us through the nerdy geniuses who created them, their fierce rivalries and risks often leading to some of the most farcical moments in the history of entertainment.

This is a story of obsession, full of tales of Space Invaders, Donkey Kong, Frogger, Mario, Sonic, 3D Wolf, Lemmings and Worms. It will also answer important questions about the golden age. Questions like: Why did Namco feel they had to change the name of Puck Man to Pac Man because they were worried about graffiti, when Nintendo were more than happy to bring out Duck Hunt?

Joysticks at the ready. Let's Play!

About the Author:

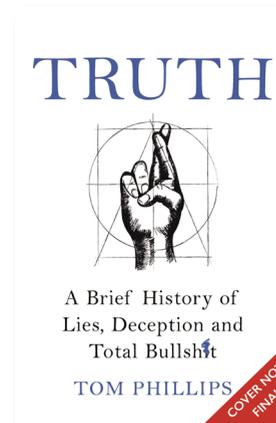

Steve McNeil is a stand-up comedian and creator of Dara O'Briain's Go 8 Bit, the most successful videogaming TV show of the last 15 years. He has appeared on more video gaming shows than anyone else in the UK. He has written for Time Out, Shortlist, Den of Geek and more. His live show 'WiFi Wars' has a residency at the Royal Institution in Mayfair. He is a Twitch streaming partner, and in 2018 was nominated for streamer of the year at the UK ESPORTS awards.

TRUTH: A BRIEF HISTORY OF LIES, DECEPTION AND TOTAL BULLSH*T Tom Phillips

Truth: A hilarious journey through the most bizarre and brilliant lies told by humans through the ages, from the author of *Humans: A Brief History of How We F*cked It All Up*

This is a book about TRUTH - and all the ingenious ways, throughout history, that we've managed to avoid it.

We live in a 'post-truth' age, we're told. The US has a president who openly lies on a daily basis (or who doesn't even know what's true, and doesn't care). The internet has turned our everyday lives into a misinformation battleground. People don't trust experts any more.

But was there ever really a golden age of truth-telling? As the editor of the UK's leading independent fact-checker, Tom Phillips deals with complete bollocks every day. Here, he tells the story of how we humans have spent history lying to each other - and ourselves - and asks an important question: how can humanity move towards a truthier future?

Praise for *Humans: A Brief History of How We F*cked It All Up*:

'F*cking brilliant' Sarah Knight, *The Life-Changing Magic of Not Giving a F*ck*

'A light-touch history of moments when humans have got it spectacularly wrong . . . Both readable and entertaining' Telegraph

About the Author:

Tom Phillips is the editor of Full Fact, Britain's leading independent fact-checking organisation. Previously he was the editorial director of BuzzFeed UK, where he divided his time between very serious reporting on important issues . . . and making jokes.

THE SECRET CIVIL SERVANT: THE INSIDE STORY OF BREXIT, GOVERNMENT FK-UPS, AND HOW WE TRY TO FIX The Secret Civil Servant

A hilarious and horrifying account of government amid Brexit chaos

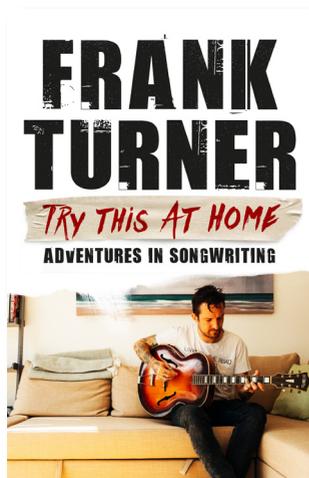

As Britain jigs daily between political crisis and constitutional meltdown, it's high time we understood what really goes on behind closed doors, from the corridors of Whitehall to the EU negotiating table. The Secret Civil Servant will reveal how Brexit unfolded behind-the-scenes, from the panic triggered by the EU referendum result in June 2016 to the last-gasp efforts to secure a deal in 2018.

It will be a unique insight into the organisation we entrust to enact the will of the British people, exploring the role civil servants have to play in running the country, how decisions made in SW1 have significant consequences for everyone and what Brexit revealed about the cracks in the system.

For fans of The Secret Barrister and Adam Kay's This is Going to Hurt, this witty and shocking account of the inner workings and ineptitude of government sheds new light on an extraordinary political era.

About the Author:

The author is a civil servant in the British government, writing anonymously because Theresa May probably won't find any of this funny.

TRY THIS AT HOME: Adventures in Song Writing

Frank Turner

A songwriting memoir from bestselling author and folk-rock icon, Frank Turner

The brand new memoir from the Sunday Times bestselling author of The Road Beneath My Feet.

Taking 36 songs from his back catalogue, folk-punk icon Frank Turner explores his songwriting process. Find out the stories behind the songs forged in the hedonistic years of the mid-2000s North London scene, the ones perfected in Nashville studios, and everything in between. Some of these songs arrive fully-formed, as if they've always been there, some take graft and endless reworking to find 'the one'. In exploring them all, Turner reflects with eloquence, insight and self-deprecating wit on exactly what it is to be a songwriter.

From love songs and break-up songs to political calls-to-arms; songs composed alone in a hotel room or in soundcheck with the Sleeping Souls, this brilliantly written memoir - featuring exclusive photos of handwritten lyrics and more - is a must-have book for FT fans and anyone curious about how to write music.

About the Author:

Frank Turner is an English folk/punk singer-songwriter from Winchester. He was the lead singer of post-hardcore band Million Dead, before embarking on a solo career. He is the Sunday Times bestselling author of The Road Beneath My Feet.

Turner has released seven solo albums as well as EPs and rarities, and has played thousands of shows across 38 countries. He sometimes lives in London, but mostly on the road.

THE LAST SANCTUARY IN ALEPPO

Alaa Aljaleel with Diana Darke

The remarkable true story of a Syrian ambulance driver, who built a cat sanctuary in war-torn Aleppo

"I'll stay with them no matter what happens. Someone who has mercy in his heart for humans has mercy for every living thing."

When war came to Alaa Aljaleel's hometown, he made a remarkable decision to stay behind, caring for the people and animals caught in the crossfire. While thousands were forced to flee, Alaa spent his days carrying out perilous rescue missions in his makeshift ambulance and building a sanctuary for the city's abandoned cats.

In turn, he created something unique: a place of tranquility for children living through the bombardment and a glimmer of hope for those watching in horror around the world. As word of Alaa's courage and dedication spread, the kindness of strangers enabled him to feed thousands of local families and save hundreds of animals. But with the city under siege, time was running out for the last sanctuary in Aleppo and Alaa was about to face his biggest challenge yet...

This is the first memoir about the war in Syria from a civilian who remains there to this day, providing both a shocking insider account as well as an inspiring tale about how one person's actions can make a difference against all odds.

About the Author:

Alaa's co-author is Diana Darke, an expert on the Middle East whose previous books include My House in Damascus and The Merchant of Syria. After studying Arabic at Oxford University, Diana Darke worked for the British government and GCHQ, and has lived in Syria, Egypt and with a Bedouin tribe.

THEATRE OF DREAMS: Playing, Managing and Everything in Between - My Autobiography Steve Bruce

The legendary Manchester United captain, and experienced manager, with a fascinating account of his time at Old Trafford under Sir Alex Ferguson, as well as the rest of his more than 35 years in the game.

Steve Bruce's Autobiography will enthrall fans of both Manchester United and English football generally with its absorbing assessment of Sir Alex Ferguson's tenure at United, and with its insightful portraits of United greats.

Forming the bed-rock of the United chapters are insights and stories galore that speak to the character, training methods and management techniques of Ferguson and the culture of success he created within the football club, giving United fans an unparalleled assessment of life at Old Trafford at that time.

Of course, Bruce is now a manager with eight clubs, and well over 800 matches, to his name. In his later chapters he provides an intriguing assessment of the changing face of football management.

About the Author:

Born in Northumberland in 1960, Steve Bruce played for Gillingham and Norwich City before being signed by Sir Alex Ferguson for Manchester United. He quickly became Sir Alex's captain and talisman, leading United to three Premier League titles, two FA Cups, one League Cup and one European Cup Winners' Cup.

His playing career finished with Birmingham City and Sheffield United. A six-year spell in charge of Birmingham City brought two separate promotions to the Premier League. He is currently manager of Sheffield Wednesday.

MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY Warren Gatland

The definitive autobiography of the legendary rugby coach who has led Wales for well over a decade, and master-minded two hugely successful southern hemisphere tours at the helm of the British and Irish Lions.

As he leaves his post as Head Coach of Wales at the end of the 2019 Rugby World Cup, Gatland's definitive autobiography provides a colourful and vivid chronicle of an extraordinary three decades at rugby's dynamic coal-face.

Gatland reflects in characteristically forthright and intelligent fashion on a lifetime spent playing and coaching the sport which has been his passion since as a young boy he first picked up an oval ball on New Zealand's North Island, dreaming of joining the ranks of the mighty All Blacks.

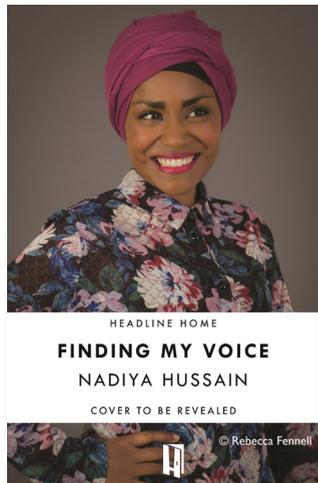

Along the way we encounter the greatest matches, players and rivalries the sport has to offer, get introduced to a stunning cast of unforgettable characters who grace the story with their humour and humanity, and emerge with a striking appreciation of how rugby has managed to retain its appeal for millions around the globe.

About the Author:

Born in Hamilton, New Zealand, in 1963, Warren Gatland played rugby for the provincial side Waikato for eight years, and made 17 non-international appearances for the All Blacks, before turning to coaching.

He was the Head Coach of the British & Irish Lions squad. He has been Head Coach of Wales since 2007, and in that time the Welsh have won the Grand Slam twice and the Six Nations three times.

During his career, Gatland has also coached Connacht and the Irish national team, as well as Wasps.

FINDING MY VOICE

Nadiya Hussain

Since the moment she was born a girl, Nadiya Hussain has taken on many different roles assigned to her by gender, culture, society and religion.

Born to parents who had emigrated to Britain from Bangladesh, her first roles were those of daughter and sister. Considering her later roles as a devout Muslim entering an arranged marriage and becoming a wife and mother herself, Nadiya questions the barriers that many women, no matter who they are or where they live, have to cross in order to be accepted or heard.

Each chapter deals with a different role, and Nadiya writes with warmth, humour, honesty and deep emotion about what each one means to her and how she embodies all the different expectations of these roles in her life. Writing about growing up in a large family, who were culturally torn between two countries, to her thoughts on becoming a celebrity, after winning The Great British Bake Off, the later chapters cover her more recent roles of 'baker', 'Twitter handle' and 'TV presenter'.

About the Author:

After winning 2015's Great British Bake Off, Nadiya Hussain has gone on to capture the hearts of the nation. A columnist for The Times and a regular reporter for The One Show, Nadiya has also presented four series for the BBC: The Chronicles of Nadiya, Nadiya's British Food Adventure, Nadiya's Family Favourites and The Great British Cooking Showdown. Her cookery titles include Nadiya's Kitchen, Nadiya's British Food Adventure and Nadiya's Family Favourites. Her three books in the bestselling Bake Me a Story series, one of which was shortlisted for a British Book Award, are published by Hachette Children's Group. Born in Luton to British Bangladeshi parents, Nadiya now lives in Milton Keynes with her husband, Abdal, and their three children.

A SPIRITED GUIDE TO VERMOUTH

Jack Adair Bevan

A guide to Vermouth, complete with recipes for how to use it in both cocktails and food.

Vermouth is gaining popularity as the new drink of choice. With dedicated vermouth bars opening in London, and the trend for botanical drinks showing no signs of slowing down, this is the perfect time to celebrate the herbal flavours of vermouth, both in cocktails as well as in recipes for food.

Jack Adair Bevan is the perfect author to tell us exactly what this drink is, how to drink it and what to mix it with, including sections for cocktails to drink before sunset and after sundown. As a drinks maker and writer he has visited some of the best bars in the world and has spent years researching vermouth and trying as many varieties as possible. This book is the culmination of his research - his love letter to this versatile drink, showcasing it in a collection of recipes that allow it to shine. From a Somerset Appletini to a Rosemary Bijou via a Vodka Martinez and four twists on the classic Negroni, Jack also includes a chapter of lower alcohol versions of the classics.

Let him take you on a journey of discovery and teach you not only how to make your own vermouth, but also how to use it in your cooking, from Vermouth-marinated Bavette Steak to Vermouth Sorbet.

About the Author:

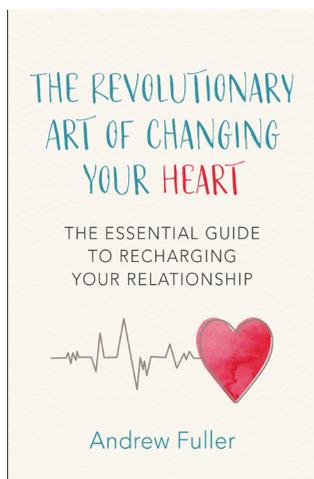

Jack Adair Bevan is an award-winning drinks and cocktail creator. He writes a regular drinks column for the Guardian Weekend magazine and also writes for Imbibe. In 2013 he was awarded Young British Foodie of the Year in the cocktail category for his Old Fashioned, and in 2015 was named Innovator of the Year at the Imbibe Awards.

THE 7-DAY BASKET

Ian Haste

Each of the ten chapters in The 7-Day Basket provides you with a shopping list and seven recipes to make delicious, fresh and exciting dinners every day of the week.

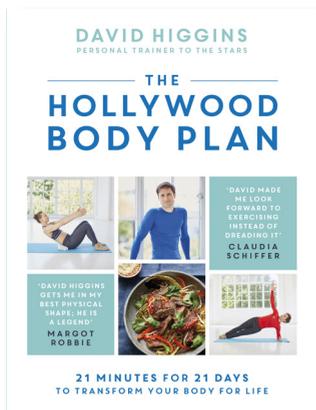

'The food Ian cooks is always so simple, healthy and tasty. I'll definitely be giving the recipes a go.'
Joe Wicks

The 7-Day Basket will guide any cook - from beginner to intermediate - to create tasty, quick and healthy dishes, all on a budget! One weekly shopping list per chapter will provide you with enough ingredients to cook seven varied meals - that's SEVEN meals from ONE basket! With ten weekly shopping lists in total you'll be inspired to cook deliciously simple and cost-effective recipes each week.

Ian has designed each recipe for two people but the book aims to suit you and your lifestyle, so simply halve the ingredients if you're eating on your own, or double them if you're a family of four! This will quickly become your go-to recipe book and with your weekly meal-planning sorted you'll no longer waste time asking 'what shall we have for dinner tonight?'

About the Author:

Ian Haste is a husband and a father of two with a passion for delicious food. Ian has been cooking for nearly 30 years: from learning the basics at home with his mum as a young lad and heading up 150-cover-gastro-pub restaurants in the 90's, to having his own studio and teaching an online, global audience how to get more from their food. Eating healthily has never been so easy and Ian's ethos is all about staying fit and simplifying nutritious recipes, so we can all eat mouth-watering, healthy meals.

THE HOLLYWOOD BODY PLAN David Higgins

Personal trainer David Higgins turns actors into superheroes – in this book he will teach you how just 21 MINUTES of exercise a day can transform your body for life.

Learn the 3-step programme that has helped stars like Claudia Schiffer, Margot Robbie and Samuel L. Jackson reach their bodies' full potential – and move freely, flexibly and confidently.

1. RESET
21-day exercise and food plan to help you exercise without pain, lose weight and feel great!
2. TRANSFORM
Get leaner, stronger and more toned as you follow this exercise and food programme.
3. FOREVER FIX
David's self-care programme is the third part of the plan and will help you treat muscle soreness, neck pain or backache. Learn simple tricks to keep you on track for life.

David's Hollywood Body Plan is a unique and corrective approach to exercise and diet, based on his belief that until you undo all the dysfunctional movement that you have developed over the years, all the exercise and diets you try will only be short-time fixes. This book will truly reset, transform and forever fix your body for life.

About the Author:

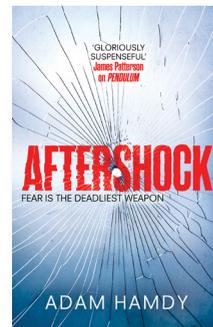

David Higgins is a personal trainer who specialises in body mobility and flexibility, from which stem strength, muscle tone, weight loss and leanness. David's expertise means that he is the first call that Hollywood actors make when they prepare for roles. Film credits include Avengers: Age of Ultron, the Kingsman films, The Legend of Tarzan, Justice League and Mission Impossible 6.

THE UNLIKELY HEROICS OF SAM HOLLOWAY

Rhys Thomas

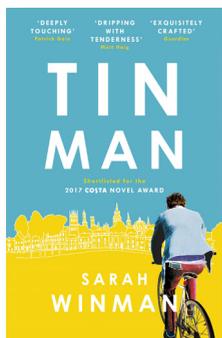

Sam Holloway has survived the worst that life can throw at you. But he's not really living. His meticulous routines keep everything nice and safe - with just one exception...

Three nights a week, Sam dons his superhero costume and patrols the streets. It makes him feel invincible - but his unlikely heroics are getting him into some sticky, and increasingly dangerous, situations.

Then a girl comes into his life, and his ordered world is thrown into chaos ... and now Sam needs to decide whether he can be brave enough to finally take off the mask.

Both hilarious and heart-warming, this is a story about love, loneliness, grief, and the life-changing power of kindness.
